HONORING SEAN MANNION

HON. ELIOT L. ENGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 24, 1998

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to speak in praise of a man who came to the United States from Ireland and has in every way made his adopted country a better place for his coming.

Sean Mannion is being honored by his colleagues in the Riverdale Post of the American Legion for his four years of service as Commander of the Post.

Sean came to us from County Mayo in 1958. He served his new country in the army as a combat engineer from 1960 to 1962 in Camp McCoy, Wisconsin, Fort Sheridan, Illinois, Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri and Fort Dix, New Jersey, seeing more of the United States than most citizens born here. He was on a ship heading towards Cuba during that missile crisis when the Soviet ships pulled back.

Sean's wife of almost 30 years, Marion, also comes from County Mayo. They have two children, Sean Jr. and Aundree. Sean and his family live in Riverdale where he has become part of the fabric of the community. At Saint Gabriel's Church he is a eucharistic minister and for ten years he has served on the Parish Council. He also gives his time to the Concourse House where he helps the homeless and the destitute.

Next year Sean will serve as County Commander of the American Legion in the Bronx. If the United States were to place ads for immigrants, Sean is the kind of person we would want to apply. He brings a sense of service, of giving, and of helping others.

I am proud to stand for him today for he epitomizes what America is and how its immigrants have made this country great.

SALUTING SIENA HEIGHTS COLLEGE

HON. NICK SMITH

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 24, 1998

Mr. SMITH of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Siena Heights University in Adrian, Michigan.

On July 1, 1998, Siena Heights College will officially change its name to Siena Heights University. Siena Heights was founded in 1919 by the Adrian Dominican Sisters, and for nearly 80 years, has served the needs of south-east Michigan.

Currently Siena Heights has seven degree completion centers that stretch across south-east Michigan. It is a student-centered education facility that serves a wide range of students, from traditional students to adults seeking to complete their degrees. Siena Heights is also a mission-driven University that is always ready to respond to the changing needs of society. I know the faculty and student body share my belief that learning is a life-long experience.

On the first day of July, when the name change is official, I am certain that Siena Heights will continue to fulfill its great commitment to educational excellence.

I join our community in saluting this wonderful institution for its dedication to higher education and congratulate the university on its name change.

A TRIBUTE TO RICHARD F. TEERLINK

HON. GERALD D. KLECZKA

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 24, 1998

Mr. KLECZKA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Richard F. Teerlink, Chairman of Milwaukee-based motorcycle manufacturer Harley-Davidson, Incorporated, who will be honored Wednesday, July 8, 1998, by the State of Israel Bonds organization at a National Corporate Tribute Dinner in Milwaukee. Rich will be presented with the prestigious Israel 50th Anniversary Award by the government of the State of Israel in recognition of his past and ongoing support of Israel's economic development, involvement in humanitarian causes and distinguished service to business and industry.

Rich Teerlink has served in a variety of positions since joining Harley-Davidson in 1981 as the firm's Chief Financial Officer. He skillfully guided the company's return to public ownership and its revitalization while in various leadership positions, as President, then Chief Executive Officer and later in his current role as Chairman of the Board. He also serves on the Board of Directors of several other successful Milwaukee-area businesses and organizations. Mr. Teerlink's efforts in our community are quite diverse, as reflected by the committee which organized the July 8th tribute dinner. It consists of elected officials—from both political parties—on the local, state and national level; corporate, business and financial types; leaders in the Jewish community, and education.

I came to know Rich Teerlink several years ago when I discovered that the police officers assigned to protect Capitol Hill were riding non-American made motorcycles. Knowing that Milwaukee-based Harley-Davidson is the largest provider of police motorcycles in the world, I found it disturbing that their cycles were not part of the standard uniform for the Capitol Hill police force. With help from other pro-American business Members of this body, I am proud to say that the Capitol police force today includes Harley-Davidson.

Again, I'm pleased to join in this well-deserved tribute to Richard Teerlink. Milwaukee thanks you for all your efforts.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. MARK E. SOUDER

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 24, 1998

Mr. SOUDER. Mr. Speaker, on June 16 on Rollcall No. 233, I was in the chamber and voted, but my vote for some reason was not recorded. I would have voted "yea" on House Resolution 401, expressing the sense of the House concerning promotions in American schools.

HONORING BRONX SHEPHERDS RESTORATION CORPORATION

HON. ELIOT L. ENGEL

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 24, 1998

Mr. ENGEL. Mr. Speaker, a little more than a decade ago the Bronx Shepherds Restoration Corporation was organized by ministers and lay people to help save a borough that, while growing again, was in serious need of help. They decided that their goal would be to stimulate the physical, economic and social rehabilitation of their neighborhoods, while simultaneously providing spiritual sustenance and leadership.

The Bronx Shepherds, who come from throughout the Bronx, chose an area to help that had many public housing projects and a growing number of families on public assistance. They have worked in many areas to help these people, from weatherization and job training to renovating vacant buildings and sponsoring and marketing homes for low- to middle-income families. They also worked to complete a 267-unit condominium project in cooperation with the New York City Housing Partnership.

A large part of the effort by the Bronx Shepherds has gone to training young people for jobs and helping them complete their education. More than 300 young people got their high school equivalency diplomas and the Bronx Shepherds trained another 300 in housing maintenance and repair. They also have programs to move children under 6 who have tested positive for lead in their blood to safe homes and have initiated another program for the frail/elderly.

The Bronx Shepherds are a model of what a group can do to help the community and the people in it. I am honored to stand here today to praise their many good works and their persistence in accomplishing them.

EASTER IS OUTRAGEOUS

HON. FRANK RIGGS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, June 24, 1998

Mr. RIGGS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to bring to my colleagues' attention a sermon delivered on Easter Day (April 12, 1998) by the Very Reverend Pierce Klemmt, Rector of Christ Church in Alexandria, Virginia. I feel the sermon contains many concepts that we, as elected leaders, should keep in mind as we carry out the people's business on the House Floor.

EASTER IS OUTRAGEOUS

I have preached Easter morning for a quarter of a century. Year after year I would unravel the Easter miracle ... make it sound reasonable ... plausible ... accessible ... especially for the hard to budge agnostics and intellectuals whose families can only get
